The Herald is the No. 1 daily newspaper in York County, one of the fastest-growing counties in South Carolina. Based in Rock Hill, with corresponding weeklies in York, Clover, Lake Wylie and Fort Mill, we cover the region best.

Every day, we provide readers in York, Chester and Lancaster counties with complete coverage of news, sports, entertainment and events. We have won top honors for our quality editorial – both in the daily and the weeklies – and for our outstanding service to advertisers. Customized advertising solutions include ZIP code zoning, neighborhood sampling, direct mail, niche marketing and total market pricing. Whether you want to shout your message to every household in the Piedmont, or simply whisper it to a few hot prospects, The Herald can handle the job.

A full-service marketing resource, we also offer innovative strategic marketing solutions, commercial printing capability, and prize-winning design work through our Rock Hill facility. We can build or enhance your presence on the Internet through our local New Media Department, which is powered by McClatchy Interactive, one of the top interactive media operations in the industry.
