

Our newspapers serve the greater Rock Hill, S.C., area, which includes York, Chester and parts of Lancaster counties. York County, established in 1785, is the second fastest-growing county in South Carolina, with more than 200,000 residents. It borders the Charlotte (N.C.) metropolitan area. There are nine municipalities within York County: Clover, Fort Mill, Hickory Grove, McConnells, Rock Hill, Sharon, Smyrna, Tega Cay York Indian Land and Lake Wylie.

The Herald, all three weekly publications and Heraldonline.com have won top South Carolina Press Association (SCPA) awards for journalism and advertising excellence. Both The Herald and the Fort Mill Times have won the press association's coveted General Excellence award.

The McClatchy Company is the second-largest newspaper company in the United States, a leading newspaper and internet publisher dedicated to the values of quality journalism, free expression and community service. Building on a 150-year legacy of independence, the company's newspapers and websites are steadfast defenders of First Amendment values and advocates for the communities they serve.
